This beautiful Tuscan farmhouse offers 349 Sq. Mt. (3,700 Sq. Ft) of luxury accommodation surrounded by lush exterior spaces close to Tuscany's main attractions such as Siena, Chianti, Montepulciano and others.

Part of a 2,500-acre estate dedicated to hosting farm stays and high-end agrotourism, Villa Montepulciano is the most luxurious home on the grounds. It is located in a totally secluded area of the estate upon a hill with unobstructed views for miles around. As you drive through avenues of trees to get to the villa, you really feel like you have the whole of Tuscany to yourself.

Besides the main house with 5 bedrooms, a large sociable kitchen and a private infinity pool, there's a deluxe 2-bedroom renovated barn with an additional kitchen, lounge and dining facilities to provide extra privacy for guests who crave their own space away from the main party.

When you book the exclusive villa, you may choose to join in activities organised by the private agriturismo estate or use any of the additional facilities in the central piazza such as a communal pool for guests or the games room with football table and table tennis. These complimentary benefits are particularly popular among families with young children who want to make friends.

Living Areas:

Inside the main house, an impressive wood-burning fireplace with a volcanic stone hearth commands the lounge, TV and dining area while its large kitchen is a great place for sociable cooking and nibbling.

The converted barn has another comfortable lounge with TV and well-equipped kitchen-dining room.

Fully-equipped kitchen with high chairs
