Welcome to Villa Cello, a contemporary 4-bedroom property overlooking the Mediterranean off the south-eastern tip of Sicily. Located within a natural reserve, the villa offers all the tranquillity of the countryside while maintaining proximity to some of the island's best-known spots. Sicily has a vast array of natural wonders and historical sites scattered across its shore. Towns such as Taormina, Catania, Ragusa, Noto and Syracuse are popular on day trips or excursions. Mt Etna is one of the island's most notable attractions, as Sicily's tallest mountain and Europe's highest active volcano.

Villa Cello is the perfect spot for those looking to spend time in the unspoiled scenery and waters of Sicily. This beautiful seaside retreat is ideal for a young family looking to spend time at the many local beaches or a group of friends hoping to experience the region's rich history and culture. The sizable patio is finished with natural textures and materials that blend impeccably into the natural surroundings. From here, you can enjoy the breathtaking views of the sunrise over the azure bay from the swinging bed. The outdoor dining area and BBQ make cooking for your family at home an absolute delight. How better could you spend the evening than watching the kids frolic in the pool all afternoon, followed by a quiet evening cocktail in the cosy outdoor sitting area once they have gone to bed with the lights of the town across the water twinkling in the distance. The private infinity pool includes a wet solarium for ultimate relaxation. The paved terrace comes furnished with stylish sunbeds and an outdoor shower. Your guests are sure to spend much of their day here soaking up the sun.

The villa's bright interior reflects the soft blues and whites of the coast outside, giving the space a casual, seaside feel. The open plan living area features plushly upholstered sofas, chairs, and large TV, as well as a lovely fireplace that also functions to divide this space from the dining area. The white-wash table can easily accommodate up to 12 guests, making this property perfect for anyone who enjoys entertaining. Your guests can easily flow from the panoramic patio through the wide glass sliding doors to the adjacent dining area for a seamless indoor-outdoor experience. Take the stress out of catering and have a personal chef prepare some of the local cuisines so you can focus on creating a memorable evening. The first floor of the property mirrors the laidback coastal atmosphere downstairs. There is an additional lounge area tastefully furnished with sofas and a corner bar. The warm natural wood, colourful artwork, and wide sliding doors onto the sunny panoramic patio deliver a chill summer vibe.
