Area Guide

Döşemealtı is one of the central districts of Antalya. The villa is approximately 16 km from Konyaaltı beach, 55 km from Kemer and 35 km from the airport.

Antalya is situated right on the Gulf and is the largest city on Turkey's western Mediterranean coastline, it is both classically beautiful and stylishly modern. At its core is the wonderfully preserved old-city district of Kaleiçi (literally 'within the castle'), which offers atmospheric accommodation in the finely restored Ottoman houses on its winding lanes. The old city wraps around a splendid Roman-era harbour with clifftop views of hazy-blue mountain silhouettes that are worth raising a toast to. Just outside of the central city are two beaches and one of Turkey's finest museums.
