The property is located in Istan village, upon the hills of Marbella. Istan is a town of Arabic origin located in the Natural Park of Sierra de las Nieves and just 20 km from the beaches of Marbella. The beauty of the surrounding nature, the passage of river Verde, its fountains, and the magic of its corners make Istan be known popularly as the "Manantial (Spring) of the Costa del Sol".

The property is located within a gated private urbanisation site with stunning sea and mountain views. Entering the urbanisation you sense that this is a very local and calm area, with wide impeccably kept streets.

Set in the cul-de-sac, the property enjoys lovely sea and mountain views as well as maximum sunlight throughout the day. The property features a great porch by the pool and BBQ with a kitchenette area at the elevated terrace at the back of the house. The property has been well maintained and has a refurbished kitchen with modern appliances. Extra features include hot/cold air conditioning and a 2-car parking space. A great villa for those who are looking for a peaceful location and sea views.

The villa has 3 bedrooms, all of them located on the first floor, with a private terrace; stunning sea and mountain views.

The living room is open with comfortable furniture and smart TV; cozy lighting and different seating areas. The outdoor dining room is separated from the living room and has a two dining table that seats 8-10 people each.
