The Villa sleeps 16 guests in total, with 12 sleeping in the main house and the remaining 4 guests in the 2-bedroom guest house. All 8 bedrooms are spacious and incredibly luxurious and also include a deluxe en suite.

Upon entering this stunning French villa, you are greeted by a grand staircase and a peaceful blend of classic furnishings and modern features in the large salon. Every room has been designed to bring out the very best of its surroundings and offering guests complete luxury. The fully equipped kitchen leads to a dining area with seating for 16 guests. For entertainment, there is a home theatre with an enormous screen and full sound system, making this the perfect spot for a movie night. For connoisseurs of the local vintage, there is even a wine cellar for the guests to enjoy.

Outside the villa, there are many areas to sit back and relax, taking in the calming sounds of the beautiful surroundings. The delightful private gardens are perfect for a morning stroll. There is a heated outdoor pool, which is the ideal location to unwind after a busy day exploring and enjoying the fun activities.

At Les Champs, with so many things to do you really are spoilt for choice. Some of our guests spend much of their well-earned vacation by the pool, while others venture to the vineyards in neighbouring Provence or travel the short distance to Cannes, Nice, or St. Tropez for the hustle and bustle and beaches of the coast.
