Chalet Gaston sleeps up to 12 guests in six delightful en-suite bedrooms. Crisp white linens beckon from the bedrooms with complimentary slippers, fluffy towels and bathrobes, and quality L'Occitane bath products.

The living areas on the first-floor offer space for both socialising, as well as sitting back with a book and glass of wine by the open fireplace. An authentic decorative balcony extends from the living area, furthering the sense of space and providing a wonderful spot year-round to take in breath-taking Chamonix views.

The ground floor terrace area, leading from the spa and opening out onto the garden, is at its best during the summer months. Enjoy the open space to relax and soak in the glorious sunshine. While in the winter months be sure to plan an evening plunge into the outdoor hot tub to stargaze, a glass of champagne in hand.

Chalet Gaston is known for its warm and calming ambience, perfect for some much-needed relaxation (especially in winter after a hard days skiing). Invigorate your senses in the luxury spa featuring a hammam steam room, sauna and indoor plunge pool, while the children settle into a movie in the state of the art cinema room.
