Villa Adrina, is a luxurious 9-bedroom villa on Sicily's northern coast. Adjacent to the capital Palermo and the picturesque town of Cefalu, you and your guests can have a restorative getaway in the Italian countryside while still being close to the city amenities you can enjoy in your own time. That is if you ever even want to leave the luxury and comfort of Adrina.

The surrounding area is rich in history and offers incredible architecture as well as spectacular beaches to explore. Ideal for large groups, the villa combines excellent design, incredible service and multiple swimming pools for your comfort. Of all our exceptional properties in Sicily, the villa is undoubtedly one of our best for large families or friends traveling together.

The villa boasts a highly desirable setting only 50 meters from the seashore with direct access to a rocky beach. The 10,000 m2 estate is rich with lush vegetation and exotic tropical plants, providing a private space to unwind. The three separate pools on the grounds, connected via two spectacular waterfalls, are the focal point of the property.

A fully equipped outdoor kitchen is available so that you can prepare and enjoy your meals by the poolside. There is a spacious furnished gazebo that looks out over the villa's pools and is the perfect spot to sit out with a good book during the hottest hours of the day or join your guests for a crisp glass of wine in the evening. Several separate terraces are available so that you and your guests can have a private space to enjoy some independence. Guests, young and old, will adore their stay at Adrina. A children's play area, ping pong table, and swimming pools will ensure that the younger guests are kept occupied all day.

In the sitting room, you can gather around the upright piano, delighting in the music late into the evening. The sleek kitchen is fully equipped with modern appliances so that you can try your hand at replicating some of the incredible meals you have tried during your stay. It has access to the garden so that you can take your incredible creations right from the kitchen to the outdoors. The property is comprised of several individual units, each with its own cooking facilities, dining, and living areas, perfect for families or groups of friends traveling together.

The northern coast of Sicily is dotted with a long run of charming towns and beautiful beaches. It is the perfect getaway spot for anyone looking to experience incredible cuisine, wine, restorative swims in the crystalline waters, visits to ancient ruins, and challenging hikes, including reaching the summit of Mt Etna. Whatever type of holiday you are looking for, we are sure you can find it here in Sicily.

The entirety of the island is accessible by car, so you can add day trips or excursions to your itinerary. Closer to Ninella, are the towns of Palermo, Monreale, Cefalù, Castelbuono, Erice, Segesta, Marsala, and Trapani.
