Area Guide

La Maddalena is a wonderful island renowned worldwide for its beaches and for the clarity and transparency of its waters, reminiscent of those in the Caribbean. The island is part of a beautiful and unmissable archipelago that can be visited by boat. In addition to the sea, the country has a characteristic old town and many attractions and services. The area is so prestigious that it is frequented by prominent personalities and national and international fame.

The project stands at the strategic point of the Mangiavolpe marina, an ideal landing place for exploring all of the island's coastline and the archipelago's heavenly beaches. The location chosen for the complex is very exclusive as it is situated in one of the most prestigious spots on the island, near Garibaldi Square, from which you can reach all services comfortably on foot.
