Situated right at the bottom of the slopes, Chalet Laurent has a remarkable view of the Olympic track in Val d'Isère. Close to the slopes, guests have quick access to the hill, but are nevertheless within close proximity to the city centre where guests can stroll through the winding streets, shop, taste the best French pastries and enjoy chic and festive bars.

Chalet Laurent is warm and modern, providing the perfect break for holidays with friends or family for 8 guests plus 2 small children. With 4 bedrooms, all with en-suites, one of the suites also has a connecting bunk bedroom for small children via the en-suite bathroom.

The jet pool and the hammam of the SPA area will allow guests to relax after a sporting day. From the windows, guests will see the Calabourdanne river which has its source in the Manchet valley, and it is ideally located opposite the famous Olympic slope of Belvédère. A stone's throw from the ski lifts and the village, guests can make the most of your days between skiing and the bustling life of the resort.

The magic of this chalet resides in the living room. The warmth of wood is combined with the wealth of details: old beams, woodwork several hundred years old, wooden floors and designer furniture. Nestled at the bottom of the sofas, guests can admire the view of the mountains, whilst enjoying the crackle of the fireplace.

Upon guests arrival, the staff at the chalet will be at guests beck and call. Young and old will be able to feast on hearty breakfasts, wonderful snacks when returning from skiing, and tasty dinners around a French wine list. A personal chef will delight guests taste buds with gourmet cuisine accompanied by an extensive wine list, which can be adapted to particular diets (gluten-free for example).

Please note that this property has the option of not being fully serviced (no butler, chef & driver) for a reduced cost. Please contact us for this pricing.
