Built over three floors, the villa was completed to the highest possible standards in 2017. Located in La Font, the villa is literally carved into the rock. The garage alone could be featured in a James Bond movie!

This luxury holiday villa has a huge amount of natural light and 360 degree views of the nearby beaches at Cala San Vicente, Puerto Pollensa and of Pollensa town.

Starting on the lower level of this stunning holiday villa there is a parking area for several cars. From here a lift takes you up into the house, which is ideal for guests who are less mobile (the lift gives access to all floors of the villa).

On the first floor, the property has a beautiful bright sunny living room with superb comfortable designer furniture, impressive artwork and an office.

The living room opens out onto a sun-drenched terrace and an impressive infinity pool, 15.5 x 2.5 metres. The pool can be heated (additional cost applies) and has a glass side which overlooks the garage area (which offers excellent Instagram photo opportunities!).

Outside there is a stylish, comfortable seating area/chill-out space and outdoor dining area where you can enjoy long, relaxing lunches and dinners cooked on the state-of-the-art gas barbecue. Also on this floor there is an indoor dining area which seats 8 and the indoor designer kitchen is state-of-the-art and is fully fitted.
